Part D) Project Description - Excellence in Cross-Sectoral Collaboration to Shift Paradigm

Participating organizations are requested to submit the following materials together with this Application Form:

1. Written Submission (Max. 2 pages, A4 size, font size >10, preferably in bullet points) A brief description of the career and life development (CLD) activity or initiative, covering the following areas:

Criteria	Mark
 Project Overview & Rationale (Word limit: 200 words) What are the shared purpose, vision and rationale behind the cross-sectoral collaboration? What specific CLD challenges, systemic issues, or gaps did the collaboration aim to address? Who were the key collaborators involved (e.g., schools, NGOs, businesses, government), and why were they brought together? Which Hong Kong Benchmarks for Career and Life Development (HKBM)# does the initiative align with, and how does it help advance CLD provisions in Hong Kong? 	10
 Strategic Cross-Sectoral Collaboration (Word limit: 300 words) What was the overall timeline and major milestones of the initiative? What were the roles of the key collaborators and how were they engaged throughout the process? How did the partners work together to co-design, co-implement, or co-evaluate? How did the initiative enable students to explore multiple career/life pathways? What processes, structures, or strategies were adopted to enable coordination, communication, and decision-making across sectors? What mechanisms were used to build shared purpose, trust, and accountability across sectors? How did the initiative evolve over time to address emerging needs or feedback, complexity, or emerging opportunities? 	25
 Paradigm Shift & System Transformation (Word limit: 300 words) In what ways did the initiative challenge conventional CLD approaches or introduce new mindsets/practices? What traditional mindsets or practices did the initiative challenge, and why? Why is this important for creating an enabling ecosystem for students and youth to thrive? What is the strategy for promoting paradigm shift through the initiative? How did the collaboration foster innovation and transform practices at an organizational or system level? 	25
 Outcomes & Sustainable Impact (Word limit: 200 words) What positive outcomes or changes did the initiative achieve for students, educators, or other partners? Provide any quantitative or qualitative (e.g., testimonials, reflections, metrics) that demonstrates its success. What long-term impact has the initiative created for the broader ecosystem? 	30
 Future Pathways (Word limit: 100 words) In what ways can your initiative further contribute to advancing CLD practices across Hong Kong? What success factors or key learnings from this engagement can be adapted or scaled by others? How will you evaluate and continuously improve the impact of your work? What support, partnerships, or resources would help you sustain or expand your efforts? 	10
